

Senior Playworker

Location: Coram's Fields Out of School Club (OSC)
Salary: £20,970 per annum
Hours: 35hrs per week during term time and school holidays

Coram's Fields Out of School Club (OSC) is looking for an exceptional individual to become part of its dedicated team to help deliver its hugely successful after school club and holiday scheme programmes for young people aged 4-12 years.

You will be dedicated to changing the lives of young people for the better, have a strong understanding of the multiple needs of the age group in question and will complement this with an ability to nurture development through a truly inclusive, creative and positive approach to engagement.

The role itself will be incredibly varied, providing opportunities to experience all aspects of the programmes' work from initial planning to implementation and reviewing of the services that we offer.

You will be required to work with young people from across the age and ability spectrum and will need to have the skills to adapt quickly and effectively in this fast paced environment.

Coram's Fields has been a flagship provider of services for young people for 80 years and our OSC is just one in a host of services delivered from our seven acre site in the heart of Central London.

If you believe that you have the passion, ability and commitment to positively impact on the lives of the young people that we serve, we would love to hear from you.

If you are interested in applying for this role, please complete the attached application form, ensuring that you address the criteria outlined within the JD and PS.
